Reports that the Turkish warships have suffered a defeat in their new attack on the Greeks near the Dardanelles were officially confirmed in London today. It is also officially stated that Greek forces were attempting to win their way to Janina, but finally had to spend the day in continuous bloody fighting. The Turkish dead include David Pasha, commander of the seventh army corps.

With adjournment this evening of the conferences between the Turkish and Balkan envoys at London until Saturday, it was announced that the warring nations are nearer a peace settlement than ever since they first joined in battle. Contrary to expectations, the Turkish envoys at the session did not demand as a right the revictualing of their Turkish cities, and did not object to treating with the Greek representatives. At the conference the Allies presented their joint demands and the Turks asked for time to consider. After the adjournment was taken the Turks officially announced that they were entirely willing to negotiate with the Greeks. It is assumed that the Turks, in not insisting that Adrianople be revictualled, obtained a quid pro quo in the decision of the immediate session of Adrianople, as they promised to do.

The Giornal d'Italia publishes a story that a young anarchist, Henry Delfarro, of San Giovanni, in Persiceto, near Bologna, who was designated by lot to assassinate King Victor Emanuel, attempted to commit suicide rather than carry out his mission. Delfarro is now in a hospital in a serious condition.

Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, left last night for Los Angeles, where he will fill a theatrical engagement this week. The champion did not talk much fight yesterday, but he intimated that he would hardly be ready to defend his title before July 4.

A film caught fire during a moving picture performance at Bafrans, near Manin, and the flames spread with great rapidity, causing a dreadful panic. Twelve persons were killed and twenty more injured. Many of the victims were women and children, who were trampled to death or maimed.

That the crews of British schooners Barengeena and Georgiana, including the family of Captain Woods, of the latter vessel, numbering in all twenty-two persons perished recently in the hurricane which swept the Gulf of Mexico, after destroying many towns in the West Indies, is the report at Mobile, Alabama, today. The two schooners went down between the Cayman Islands and Jamaica, the advice says.

Roland S. Garros, the French aviator, has completed his long flight from Tunis, Africa. Garros after a splendid flight from Tunis, on December 18, landed at Trapani, Sicily, 160 miles over the Mediterranean Sea. From Trapani he flew to the Italian mainland and continued his flight, stopping at Naples. He landed at Rome an hour and a half before he was expected.

(Special Cable to the Nippon Jiji.) TOKIO, Dec. 23.—For the first time since the new ministry has been installed, Prince Taro Katsura, premier, called his cabinet ministers in conference today. Military and naval problems were the topics of the discussion.

The Korean military extension problem, which caused the resignation of Salongji's entire cabinet, was apparently the main subject of discussion. After prolonged debate it was finally decided to postpone action on the matter for a year, and this time no opposition by the military party was expressed.

The naval extension plan laid down by Baron Admiral Saito, minister of the navy, received due consideration and a motion to add to the budget for next year an item of 6,000,000 yen was unanimously adopted.

EXPLAINS RESIGNATION

(Special Cable to the Nippon Jiji.) TOKIO, Dec. 23.—The members of the Seiyu-Kai, the most powerful political party in Japan and of which Marquis Salongji, former premier, is leader, gathered here today in caucus. Salongji addressed the meeting explaining in detail why he and his entire cabinet had resigned. He concluded with a plea urging the members of the Seiyu-Kai to get together and do their best in support of constitutional government.

Baron and Baroness Hardinge, viceroy and vicereine of India, miraculously escaped assassination by a native fanatic yesterday, while making their ceremonial entry into Delhi, the new imperial capital of India.

The Splinters of the powerful bomb which killed one native attendant, and also wounded another, hit Baron Hardinge in the back of the head and shoulders. One of the screws with which the bomb was filled passed through his helmet. The doctors who removed the screws from the wounds declare it was marvelous the viceroy escaped from serious injuries.

Lady Hardinge, immediately after the explosion, asked her husband if he was hurt. He replied: "I am all right, go on."

Lady Hardinge then said: "We cannot, there is a dead man behind."

The elephant on which they were riding halted and the viceroy tried to stand up, but reeled and fainted, and the officials who gathered around him had much difficulty in removing him from the elephant's back. The hawdah in which he and Lady Hardinge were seated was blown into matchwood.

WHEN A LAXATIVE IS NEEDED—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills are violent—they act on bowels as pepper acts in nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salt, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children—advertisement.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria.

Physicians Recommend Castoria. "Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better." JOHN J. LEPPA, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., New York City.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies." VICTOR E. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm." EDWARD FARRIS, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Four Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the national household remedy for infantile ailments." J. A. FARRIS, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.
